

Certificate of Recognition

This certificate is proudly presented to

Sri Bhaktha Anjaneya Temple

On behalf of Frederick County, it is our honor to recognize the Sri Bhaktha Anjaneya Temple for today's celebration of the arrival of a 36-foot Anjaneya (Hanuman) Vighraha, a sacred symbol of devotion, strength and service.

This special occasion is being held in conjunction with the auspicious festival of Ugadi, marking the New Year for many communities, and represents a meaningful moment for the growing Indian American community in Maryland.

We are grateful to Sri Bhaktha Anjaneya Temple for hosting this once-in-a-lifetime event that brings together community leaders, families and devotees from across the region, fostering unity, cultural appreciation and spiritual reflection. We sincerely appreciate sharing this memorable occasion with you and the diverse communities that contribute to the fabric of Frederick County, Maryland!

Jessica Fitzwater

Frederick County Executive
Jessica Fitzwater

Presented, this 4th day of April 2026

Frederick County: Rich History, Bright Future